Cruise from our pirate's cove Haad Nui to the beautiful Raya Island only 20 km south of Phuket.

We anchor inside a clear-water bay where you can enjoy a white sand beach, go sunbathing, swimming or snorkelling to view the many corals and reef fish.

With advance notice we can also arrange for diving equipment to be available for non-divers to make an introduction dive with tuition or for experienced divers

You will have a barbecue lunch at the Jolly Roger facility on the beach. After lunch, if you wish, you can join our guides on 30-40 minute walk through the island to see how the locals live and view the wildlife which includes Monitor Lizards, Sea Eagles and Water Buffalo.

More swimming, sunbathing or Jolly Roger Ropeswing fun can be had before we make our return trip to Phuket.

Cruise from Laem Phrao Pier into the spectacular Phang Nga Bay with its limestone sea mountains caves & mangrove swamps.

We take you up close to the mountains for great photo opportunities.

We anchor off James Bond Island and transfer to Luk Muang for a trip around the islands, through caves and mangroves.

You will go to Koh Panyi the 200 year old Floating Muslim Village where you can see how the locals live and work.

A barbecued lunch will be served on board Jolly Roger while we cruise out of the bay.

We stop off Koh Wa where you will have time for a swim and fun on the Jolly Roger ropeswing.

Return to pier.

All trips include: Hotel transfers to and from Jolly Roger.

Free Tea, Coffee, Fresh Fruit and Banana Bread.

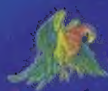

Jolly Roger is a 125ft authentic wooden pirate ship with a capacity to hold 200 passengers comfortably.

Complete with full bar facilities, P.A. System, Stereo and Western Style Toilets.
